9. Rules of Debate

- a) Items included in the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear on the agenda unless the order is changed at the Chairman's direction for reasons of expedience.
- b) A motion shall not be considered unless it has been proposed and seconded.
- c) A councillor may move an amendment to his own proposal. If a proposal has already been seconded an amendment to it shall be with the consent of the seconder.
- d) An amendment to a proposal shall be either:
 - i. To leave out words
 - ii. To add words
 - iii. To leave out words or add other words
- e) An amendment to a proposal shall not have the effect of rescinding the original proposal under consideration.
- f) Only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the Chairman. No further amendment to a proposal shall be moved until the previous amendment has been disposed of.
- g) Subject to standing order 9f above one or more amendments may be discussed together if the Chairman considers this expedient, but shall be voted on separately.
- h) Pursuant to standing order 9f above the number of amendments to an original or substantive motion, which may be moved by a councillor, is limited to one.
- i) If an amendment is not carried, other amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the Chairman.
- j) If an amendment is carried, the original motion as amended shall take the place of the original motion and shall become the substantive motion upon which any further amendment may be moved.
- k) Where a series of amendments to an original motion is carried, the mover of the original motion shall have the right of reply, in respect of the substantive motion at the very end of the debate and before it is put to the vote.
- l) During the debate of a motion a councillor may interrupt only on a point of order or a personal explanation and the councillor who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A councillor raising a point of order shall identify the standing order which he/she considers has been breached, or specify the irregularity in the meeting he/she is concerned by.
- m) The Chairman shall decide a point of order and his/her decision will be final.
- n) With the consent of the seconder and/or of the meeting a motion or amendment may be withdrawn by the proposer. A councillor shall not speak upon the said motion or amendment unless permission for the withdrawal of the motion or amendment has been refused.
- o) When a councillor's motion is under debate no other motion shall be moved except:
 - i. To amend the motion
 - ii. To proceed to the next business
 - iii. To adjourn the debate

- p) In respect of iv. above, the Chairman shall first be satisfied that the motion has been sufficiently debated before it is seconded and put to the vote. The Chairman shall call upon the mover of a motion under debate to exercise or waive his/her right of reply and shall put the motion to the vote after the right has been exercised or waived. The adjournment of a debate or meeting shall not prejudice the mover's right of reply at the resumption.

10. Rescission of Previous Resolutions

- a. A resolution (whether affirmative or negative) of the Council shall not be reversed within 6 months except in special circumstances, the written notice whereof bears the names of at least 3 councillors.
- b. When a special motion or any other motion moved in pursuant to 10a above has been disposed of no similar motions may be moved within a further 6 months.

11. Disorderly Conduct

- a) No person shall obstruct the transaction of business at a meeting or behave offensively or improperly.
- b) If in the opinion of the Chairman there has been a breach of standing order 11a above, the Chairman shall express that opinion and thereafter any councillor (including the chairman) may move that the person be silenced or excluded from the meeting, and the motion, if seconded, shall be put forthwith without discussion.
- c) If a resolution made in accordance with standing order 11b above is disobeyed the Chairman may take such further steps as may reasonably be necessary to enforce it and he/she may adjourn the meeting.

12. Canvassing and Recommendation by Councillors

- a) Canvassing councillors directly or indirectly, for appointment to or by the Council shall disqualify the candidate for such an appointment. The clerk shall disclose the requirements of this standing order to any candidate.
- b) A councillor shall not solicit a person for appointment to or by the Council or recommend a person for such appointment or for promotion, but nevertheless any such person may give a written testimonial of a candidate's ability, experience or character for submission to the Council with an application for appointment.
- c) This standing order shall apply to tenders as if the person making the tender were a candidate for an appointment.

13. Inspection of Documents

- a) Subject to standing orders to the contrary or in respect of matters which are confidential, a councillor may for the purpose of his official duties (but not otherwise) inspect any documents in the possession of the Council and request a copy for the same purpose. The minutes of the meetings of the Council, and sub-committees shall be available for inspection by councillors.
- b) Members of the public may have access to Parish Council records in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (Standard Scheme for Parish and Town Councils.)

14. Unauthorised Activities

- a) Unless authorised by a resolution, no individual councillor shall in the name or on behalf of the Council:
 - i. Inspect any land or premises which the Council has a right or duty to inspect or

- ii. Issue orders, instructions or directions.

15. Confidential Business

- a) Councillors shall not disclose information given in confidence or which they believe or ought to be aware is of a confidential nature.
- b) A councillor in breach of the provision of standing order 15a above may be removed from the sub-committee by resolution of the council.

16. Voting on Appointments

- a) Where more than two persons have been nominated for a position to be filled by the Council and none of these persons has received an absolute majority of votes in their favour, the name of the person having the least number of votes shall be struck off the list and a fresh vote taken. This process shall continue until a majority of votes is given in favour of one person. Any tie may be settled by the Chairman's casting vote.

17. Execution of Legal Deeds

- a) A legal deed shall not be executed on behalf of the Council unless the same has been authorised by resolution.
- b) In accordance with a resolution made under standing order 17a above, any two members of the Council may sign, on behalf of the council, any deed required by law and the Proper Officer shall witness their signatures.

18. Code of Conduct

- a) All councillors shall be given a copy of the adopted code of conduct at the same time as their declaration of office.
- b) All councillors shall observe the code of conduct adopted by the Council.
- c) No business may be transacted at a meeting unless at least one third of the whole number of members of the Council are present and in no case shall the quorum of a meeting be less than three.
- d) The code of conduct adopted by the Council shall apply to councillors in respect of the entire meeting.
- e) Councillors with prejudicial interest in relation to any item of business being transacted at a meeting may (1) make representations, (2) answer questions and (3) give evidence relating to the business being transacted but must, thereafter, leave the room.

19. Allegations of Breaches in the Code of Conduct

- ● a) On receipt of a notification there has been an alleged breach of the code of conduct the clerk shall refer it to the Chairman.
- ● b) Where the notification relates to a complaint made by the clerk, the clerk shall notify the Chairman.
- c) The subject matter of notification shall be confidential and in so far as is possible to do so by law, the Council (including the clerk) shall take the steps set out below together with any other steps considered necessary to maintain confidentiality
 - i. Draft the summons and agenda in such a way that the identity and subject matter of the complaint are not disclosed.
 - ii. Ensure that any background papers containing the information set out in standing order 19a above are not made public.
 - iii. Ensure that the public and press are excluded from meetings as appropriate.

- iv. Ensure that the minutes of meetings preserve confidentiality.
 - v. Consider any liaison that may be required with the person or body with statutory responsibility for the administration of the matter.
- d) Standing order 19c above should not be taken to prohibit the Council (whether through the clerk or the Chairman) from disclosing information to members and officers of the Council or to other persons where such disclosure is necessary to deal with the complaint as required by law
- e) References to standing order 19 to a notification shall be taken to refer to a communication of any kind, which relates to a breach or an alleged breach of the code of conduct of a councillor.

20. Power of Well-being (England)

- a) Before exercising the power to promote well-being, a meeting of the full Council shall have passed a resolution to confirm it has satisfied the prescribed statutory criteria required to qualify as an eligible Parish Council.
- b) The Council's period of eligibility begins on the date that the resolution under standing order 20a above was made and expires on the day before the annual meeting of the Council takes place in a year of ordinary elections.
- c) After the expiry of its preceding period of eligibility, the Council continues to be an eligible Council solely for the purpose of completing an activity undertaken in the exercise of the power to promote well-being which was not completed before the expiry of the Council's preceding period of eligibility referred to in standing order 20b above.

21. Financial Regulations

- a) The Council has established a set of financial regulations for guidance and these are attached.

22. Council Policies

- a) The Council may from time to time adopt policies related to its management and affairs. These are attached as appendices to this document and have the same status as the standing orders.

23. Variation, Revocation and Suspense of Standing Orders

- a) Any or every part of the standing orders, except those which are mandatory by law, may be suspended by resolution in relation to any specific item of business.
- b) A motion to permanently add to or vary or to revoke one or more of the council's standing orders not mandatory by law shall not be carried unless two thirds of the councillors at a meeting of the Council vote in favour of the same.

24. Standing Orders to be Given to Councillors

- a) The clerk shall provide a copy of the Council's standing orders to a councillor upon delivery of his declaration of acceptance of office.
- b) The Chairman's decision as to the application of standing orders at meetings shall be final.
- c) A Councillor's failure to observe standing orders more than 3 times in one meeting may result in him/her being excluded from the meeting in accordance with standing orders.
